NOTICE RELATED TO USE OF DISABLED PLACARDS

There have been some distressing stories that have hit some of our students as it relates to their use of disabled placards in our college parking lots. Sometimes disabled relatives will lose their placard and apply for a duplicate and later find their placards. These duplicate placards sometimes end up in the hands of family members. To get a replacement the family member must report the original placard lost or stolen, and that list is available to law enforcement. Even though the L.A. County Sheriffs provide security for our campus, the LAPD is allowed to patrol the garages to enforce the City of L.A. disabled parking rules. The LAPD does enter our parking structures and rooftop parking on almost a weekly basis comparing the disabled placards to the state list of lost or stolen placards. They have found a number of students parking with these lost or stolen placards, leading to a $350+ ticket for parking illegally in a disabled parking spot, $350+ ticket for using a lost or stolen placard, and – on top of that – their car is towed to a contracted lot requiring another $500 to $1000 to retrieve the car. This sometimes spells the end of the student's ability to attend college. It is important that individuals know that the potential expense far surpasses the $20 per semester parking fee and plan accordingly. I have dealt with several of these tragic circumstances where our students made this mistake without understanding the full consequences. Please help us make sure it does not happen to any other of our students.

FOOD PANTRY

Don't forget that every Tuesday morning between 10:30 a.m. and noon, we hold a food pantry as part of a partnership with the St. Francis Center. If you bring your student ID, you can pick up free fresh produce, food items and drinks. Come on by.

AA MEETING

Also a reminder that every Wednesday there is an AA support group that meets in Room 205 of the Bradley Center for Student Life. The meeting takes place every week at 1:30 p.m. If you need help or support in facing issues with alcohol or drugs, you are not alone, and you are welcome. If you have any questions, please contact Donza Robinson at: donzarobinson@gmail.com

LATTC ADS

I hope you've had a chance to see some of the latest external advertising we have placed on buses, trains, rail stations, and bus shelters. The ads feature real LATTC alumni who have graduated to important careers. I hope these ads not only build enrollment, but give you more incentive to complete your education and take up a great career. We also have a robust social media push as well.

I encourage you to enroll before classes fill up and let us know how we can help you move forward on your educational journey.
