A student who is subject to dismissal may appeal to the College Dismissal Committee by submitting a Reinstatement Petition to the Office of Admissions (see counselor to initiate petitions). Dismissal may be postponed and the student continued on probation if the student shows significant improvement in the academic achievement but has not been able to achieve to a level that would meet the requirements for removal from probation.

A student who has been dismissed may request reinstatement after two semesters have elapsed. The student shall submit a written petition requesting reinstatement in compliance with College procedures. The Dismissal Committee will meet the first week of August and the first week of December each year to review these petitions. See the current College schedule for the date of the next meeting. Readmission may be granted, denied, or postponed subject to fulfillment of conditions prescribed by the college.
